Proposal CrisisArt Festival

In order to create our festival, we are asking that interested groups or individuals fill out this proposal sheet so that we have a more complete idea of who you are and your interests in participating in the Crisis Arts Festival collective. This will help us to maintain what is the best way to contact you and information about presentations, performances, and workshops proposed to the collective. We will also use this information on our website.

Please submit one form per company/presentation, choosing one member to serve as a contact person. Feel free to include video or other media showing current or previous work, as well as a CV (company or personal). If you'd like, attach photos of a performance, past workshop, or a headshot for us to use on the website.

Company/Presentation Information

Name of your Company or Individual:

Name of Performance/Presentation:

Estimated Length of Performance, Presentation, or Workshop

Total number of participants and their names (collaborators, technicians, etc.)

Please give a brief biography or history of your organization

Give a brief description of your Performance, Presentation, or Workshop:

How does your piece respond to crisis, either on the global scale or from an artistic or personal position?

What are the essential technical requirements for your presentation? Please be aware of the limited tech time and capabilities available at the festival.

The primary language of past festivals has been English. Would your group require translators in order to participate fully in the festival, and in what language(s)

What do you hope to bring to the festival's participants, and what are you hoping to take away from this experience?

Thank you for your proposal!

The CrisisArt Festival is a not-for-profit endeavor constructed and organized by volunteers. As a collective, we expect all participants to take part in every aspect of the festival, including workshops, performances, discussions, and activities, plus lending a helping hand.
